

KATARA CADE

Katara grew up in small town Wyoming and graduated from the University of Wyoming.

Her passion for interior design started as a young girl who was constantly rearranging her room! Once Katara reached her junior year in high school, she decided she wanted to pursue interior design to help people while using her creative abilities.

Katara has fallen in love with Bozeman's outdoorsy and friendly atmosphere; as well as the beautiful scenery.

When she isn't working, Katara spends most of her time hiking, swimming, and playing in the snow with her Bernedoodle, Nomad! However, her small town roots haven't outgrown Katara as she also likes to mud bog, drag race, and RZR ride through the hills.
